

The Royal Thai Embassy in Copenhagen in cooperation with the Office of Commercial Affairs in Copenhagen, Thailand Board of Investment in Stockholm, Office of Agricultural Affairs in Brussels, Tourism Authority of Thailand, Thai Airways International, Thai-Danish Association, Thai Association in Copenhagen and other Thai communities in Denmark will hold “Thai Festival 2010” on Sunday 25th July 2010 at City Hall Square between 11.00 – 17.30 hrs.

The event comprises a variety of activities and Thai cultural performances. Participants may enjoy authentic Thai food and exotic Thai fruits at reasonable price. Besides outstanding Thai cuisine, you may also taste various Thai herbal drinks made from fresh Thai herbs such as longan, lemongrass, chrysanthemum, etc.

There are lots of interesting activities for participants to enjoy such as Thai cultural performances, Thai classical dances, Thai classical music as well as a demonstration of Thai boxing.

For anybody wishes to take holidays in Thailand, you may find out more information about varieties of great Thai tourist destinations from Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) and Thai Airways International's booths during the event. In addition, the Office of Commercial Affairs, Office of Agricultural Affairs in Brussels and Thailand Board of Investment will also set up a booth to provide information for those who are interesting in doing business and investment in Thailand.

No Admission fee whatsoever. We are looking forward to welcome you there.

Royal Thai Embassy,

COPENHAGEN.

June 2010